

Oh, Me of Little Faith

Matthew West

Oh me of little faith
Can't seem to see my way
Out of the storm I'm in Diving waves are crashing in
Down to my last mustard seed
God help oh me of little faith

Oh me of little hope
What I would give to know
Answers waiting on the other side
Of the pain and the tears I've cried
At the end of a worn out rope
God help oh me of little hope

Lord, I believe but help my unbelief cause
Trust and fear are fighting and I'm somewhere in between
A fumbling fool I am
I'll never understand how You oh God of endless grace
Can love oh me of little faith

Oh me of little peace
This world won't let me be
Spinning out of my control
Troubled times, troubled soul
Help me fix my eyes on Thee
God help oh me of little peace

Oh me of little love
A lonely life in the middle of
A sea of faces racing on
I think I find it, then it's gone
But You fill my empty cup
God help oh me of little love

Lord, I believe but help my unbelief cause
Trust and fear are fighting and I'm somewhere in between
A fumbling fool You know I am
I'll never understand how You oh God of endless grace
Can love oh me of little faith

Oh me of little strength
I'm weary from this heavy weight
Pressing down on my shoulders now
Took awhile but I'm finding out
Blessed are the ones so weak
God help oh me of little strength

Oh me of little hope
Oh me of little peace
Oh me of little love
Oh me of little strength
A fumbling fool I am
I guess I'll never understand
How You oh God of endless grace
Would love oh me of little faith
