

See You In Everything

Matty Mullins

I finally saw you when I opened up my eyes, eyes.
A brilliant glimpse of beauty I cannot describe,
Now I'm alive!

[Chorus]

How can I deny? It's so obvious.
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
Just to see your face I gave it all away,
Now you show me every day, you show me every day!
How can I deny?
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
I gave it all away just to see your face,
Now you show me every day.

My selfish heart made it hard to recognize the light,
But you sought after me with grace so I could rise
And find that you are the evidence of all benevolence,
Now I'm free for the first time in my life!

[Chorus]

How can I deny? It's so obvious.
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
Just to see your face I gave it all away,
Now you show me every day, you show me every day!
How can I deny?
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
I gave it all away just to see your face,
Now you show me every day.

I see you in everything, I see you in everything!
You refuse to hide,
Your mercy fills up the sky.
I finally opened my eyes,
It's in you I come alive!

[Chorus]

How can I deny? It's so obvious.
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
Just to see your face I gave it all away,
Now you show me every day, you show me every day!
How can I deny?
I see you in everything, see you in everything.
I gave it all away just to see your face,
Now you show me every day.
