

Man Needs A Woman

Maty Noyes

You only love me for my body
I'd rather lay by a body
Of water and enjoy the view next to you, baby, yeah

You think I love you for your money
And in that time, you gave me three rings, yeah
One for each year that you loved me and let me know

I can't really say that it was all just a mistake
Because I learned so many lessons from your love
I felt it on the day when all your love had gone away
And I could see it in your eyes that it was gone

Maybe a man needs a woman
Maybe a man needs a woman
But I cannot be, be that woman
That woman for you

He needs someone who can listen
To all his lies and believe him
I thought that was me
But I'm just not that woman for you

Now I'm seeking help 'cause you put me through hell
Only care 'bout yourself, yeah, it's true
So I'll be the woman for someone who's nothing like you

You only listen when I'm naked
And then you blame it on your patience
You think that it's funny, but I really needed you

And I was your religion, but your sins are not forgiven
Because you do not believe in us no more
And I'm forever changed from who I hurt along the way
But now I'm in a better place and I'm so sorry

Maybe a man needs a woman
Maybe a man needs a woman
But I cannot be, be that woman
That woman for you

He needs someone who can listen
To all his lies and believe him
I thought that was me
But I'm just not that woman for you

Now I'm seeking help 'cause you put me through hell
Only care 'bout yourself, yeah, it's true
So I'll be the woman for someone who's nothing like you

But I feel your pain to lose me this way
Once my heart breaks, it's never the same
So go take your games to someone who plays
'Cause I need some space

Maybe a man needs a woman
Maybe a man needs a woman

But I cannot be, be that woman
That woman for you

He needs someone who can listen
To all his lies and believe him
I thought that was me
But I'm just not that woman for you (Thought that was me)

Now I'm seeking help 'cause you put me through hell
Only care 'bout yourself, yeah, it's true
So I'll be the woman for someone who's nothing like you
(Thought that was me)
(I'm just not that woman for you, yeah)

Yeah, I'll be the woman for someone who's nothing like you
