Thirst Trap

Maty Noyes

I told him that I knew too much to kiss him
He told 'bout the girl, but never knew about [?]
I thought that it was only us against 'em
If it's only us then would you miss them?

You talk so much shit to me, babe
I would rather that you don't say a thing
All of the promises that you won't keep
I am strong but I'm sensitive, please

Why you gotta be like that?
Saw you on the Instagram, thirst trap
Comment on a bitch's post from six months back
I don't understand, thought you were my man
Why you gotta lie like that?
Instagram, thirst trap
Why you gotta lie like that?
Instagram, thirst trap

And who are you when you're not around me
I don't even know who he's around
And is it worth the thought of losing me?
And who are you to think you can tell me things
Yeah, that they don't really mean a thing
Yeah, you fucked me up in the best way (fucked me up)

Why you gotta be like that?
Saw you on the Instagram, thirst trap

I know I don't belong to you
I know you don't belong me
And I don't wanna fuck with you
But I just can't stop fucking you
I know I don't belong to you
I know you don't belong me
And I don't wanna fuck with you
But I just can't stop fucking you
