

Summer Of Love

Maude Latour

Babe, call your friends, yeah
We're going out
Out under the bridge
We can have it all
You don't have to try
You can be yourself
You can be whatever you want
Anything is real
I don't really mind
Honey, it's a ride
Goes on for a while
I know it gets hard
Soon I know you'll fly
You'll become yourself
You can be whatever you want, anything is

You're the only thing I think about with summer ending
On your ex bf's rooftop I met you when the sun was setting
And we almost kissed but I said you can't kiss me when you're drinking
In the morning you came to me crying it was the beginning

Now I'm calling your taxi
Kissing me in the backseat
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
Now I'm calling your taxi
Kissing me in the backseat
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
Summer of love
Summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of lo-

Hey, eternal paradise
Somewhere in your room
Turning off the lights
Silhouette of you
But will it be enough?
What if I lose myself?
I can be whatever you want, anything is

You're the only thing I think about with summer ending
On your ex bf's rooftop I met you when the sun was setting
And we almost kissed but I said you can't kiss me when you're drinking
In the morning you came to me crying it was the beginning

Now I'm calling your taxi
Kissing me in the backseat
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
Now I'm calling your taxi
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
Summer of love
Summer of love

You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
Summer of love
Summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
You and me in the summer of love
