

Lean On You

Maurette Brown Clark

Lord, You know what each day will bring,
For You designed my destiny.
Each test and trial comes tailor made for me.

Lord, You know just how I feel,
People see my smile but it's not real.
I need Your strength to make it through,
Can I lean on You?

Let me lean on You,
I'm too weak to stand on my own,
I'm prone to fall again.

All my tears are gone,
Can't cry no more,
As I lay prostrate
In the middle of the floor.

Lord, I call Your name, I am not ashamed,
At the end of my rope, You're my only hope;
I have done all I can do, Jesus,
Can I lean on You?

I have done all I can do, Jesus,
Let me lean on You?

Lord, it's cold, I can't get warm,
Seems like I'm stuck inside this storm.
But I know You promised
You'd never leave me,
He won't leave you.

How can I stand without Your hand,
Lord, I'm holding on, but I feel so all alone;
Sometime it's so hard to pray to You,
Can I lean on You?

Let me lean on You, Jesus.
I want to lean on Jesus.

Let me lean on You, Jesus.
I need to lean on Jesus.

I've got to lean on Jesus.
Let me lean on You, Jesus.

I've got to lean.
