

Into Hope

Maverick Sabre

I don't think the sun is coming back today
So lost in myself I could not appreciate
All week stressed out
They cancel anyway
Now I walk through their lives
And hear their whispered tales

Falling into hope
Falling into the uncontrolled
Falling
And give me your heart so I can taste the way the raindrops fall
1
Give me the patience or the desperation
Put a mile between me and what I was before
And give me a burning in my eyes so I can hear you more
Give me the time
Give me the time

Beautiful thing
Does it hurt to smile
Nooses of Gin
And dreams of suicide
First flush of spring
Another love denied
Phone that doesn't ring on a Friday night

Falling into hope
Falling into the uncontrolled
Falling
And give me your heart so I can taste the way the raindrops fall
1
Give me the patience or the desperation
Put a mile between me and what I was before
And give me a burning in my eyes so I can hear you more
Give me the time
Give me the time

Make me bleed
So I can heal for anyone
And I'm sorry for everything
I couldn't feel when I was numb
And give me a burning deep within
And let the words be sung
Give me the time
Give me the time
