

Aye, pop a pill forgot my name so my feelings not the same no more
Women changed still insane everything but the pain is forced Pay it forward for my brothers
Laying dormant for my mother
Games of war against my love
Forgot how to breathe
I got so caught up in my options I forgot I could leave
Tryna convince her that she not them unironically
In honor of peace, I'm stirring up some fights just to see
If modest ol' me
Is worth all of that drama you bringing
See my father in my eyes
No surprise in that
Silent claps
Seated besides the facts
Behind my raps
Below potential
Headache got me tryna crack the thing that hold my mental
Me and my girl got nearly matching chains but mine a rental
(So what you on?) Not a thang homie
(What you grown?) Only drained got this soul on five-finger-discount
Hiding slow
Riding low so it ain't shit to dismount
Am I alone? Prolly so but ain't no ditches this route
You feel me

Off a flat
I won't call you back
I'm too high
Say it's killing me get off my back
Know we gon die
It ain't nothing in the mirror for me but cold eyes
It's a long ride
And I know she gon be the death of me
Yeah but I gotta keep her next to me
And I know she gon be the death of me
Yeah but I gotta keep her next to me
