

Spoiled Brat

MAVI

Yeah, yeah

You wouldn't rap like that if you want it

You wouldn't act like that if you want it

Yeah, yeah

You wouldn't rap like that if you want it

You wouldn't act like that if you want it

I was on backpack path, niggas stunted

I can't wear pats on back, badge of honor

I had an asthma attack when we rushed 'em

I quit the Xanax, a stab in the stomach

Got twice the gravity, half the circumference

You reach, then this hesi' gon' have niggas stumblin'

Good dribble moves

Image of man, I'm original

Feedin' my fam lil' riddle food

Reason she put hands on me, chemical

When I couldn't touch these bands, wasn't pitiful

Knew mandem wicked, I'm wicked too

New fans, I'm feelin' invincible

New dance steps, nigga done bit a few

No hand checkin', she said, "I'm feelin' you"

No bread lessons 'til you go risk a few, living proof

Footprint on necks, can't lift a shoe

Off principle, I'm finna juke

Told my mama, "Give me weeks," come back and give her breesh

I'll give her what she needs 'cept access to me

I'm a complicated man, local niggas tryna beef

Business tryna breach, took her to the beach

Got sand all in the Prius, I couldn't give a damn them days

I rotate different ruts, sneaking, getting drunk

Seethin' on a button, chiefin' on an onion

Glad I washed my hands, now you gon' honor my request

If at your own behest, and if this game is chess

Put in a lot of work for the throne to rule this land

I told my mama, "Give me weeks," come back and give her breesh

I'll give her what she needs 'cept access to me

I'm a complicated man, local niggas tryna beef

Business tryna breach, took her to the beach

Got sand all in the Prius, I couldn't give a damn them days

I rotate different ruts, sneaking, getting drunk

Seethin' on a button, chiefin' on an onion

I'm glad I washed my hands, now you gon' honor my request

If at your own behest, and if this game is chess

I put in a lot of work for the throne to rule this land

Yeah, for the throne to rule this land, my nigga

Put in a lot of work, yeah, for the throne to rule this land, nigga
