MAVI

Tried every worldly direction
Pry my girl out depression
Broke myself off the bottom
Told myself I was second
Wrote myself out a corner
Broke my cell we not textin
Home was hell and a blessing
Home was hell and a blessing
Put a fist on my shoulder
Show the way to my brethren
Show me patience and pressure
Sew escape under pressure
Golden age of expression
Hope to state a repression
Closing made a digression
Dome invaded with questions
Breathing lightning expensive
Reconnect with my sister
[?] my mama
I'm seeming a little dismissive
You see in my face I miss it
It's growing making shit awkward
This all throw off momentum
Disloyalty say the column
My woman saying not to listen
Woman say not to listen
I told my girl not to drink
And I'm kind of surprised she didn't
Apologize for the dishing
Apologize for the other me
That's fucked up that I tweaked
Still get fucked up through the recovery
