

(Uh, yeah)
(Uh, uh, uh)
Uh, we both gon' die
Oh

Showin' my lil' brother get his chip without foldin' his hand
On the Ford, I'm coppin' fish and grits with a pole in my pants
Poled and pissy, it was me and Mitchy, a four and a prayer
I make women miss me, niggas hit me, don't know who my friend
Halfway 'cross the river, I'm still stitchin' up holes in my pl an
Coping with addiction, my condition incorporate again I'll give back every penny just to chill on the North with the fam'
This shit gettin' old, the limits little bit bolder in sand
I hear "Goodbye" before your tongue rise
As near as I can hear the sun rise, as clear as when the funds dry
I never could just do the right in one try
And so I jumped the fence in Heaven to another life
Breakin' in her, I was taking pills while Mom was makin' dinner
I think my main guardian angel was my baby sitter
I let my shadow lead the way and I got taken with him
Tryna walk toward the life of separation

It's just me and you
While I forgot to breathe, you grew
If I just try to see, it's you
We both gon' die, ah
It's just me and you
While I forgot to breathe, you grew
If I just try to see, it's you
We both gon' die, but I won't lie
It's just me and you
While I forgot to breathe, you grew
If I just try to see, it's you
We both gon' die, ah
It's just me and you
While I forgot to breathe, you grew
If I just try to see, it's you
We both gon' die, but I won't lie

Yeah
