

Stronger

Mavis Staples

Samson tore the building down
Moses climbed to higher ground
And when it comes to me and you
There ain't nothing I wouldn't do

Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Than my love for you
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Than my love for you

Don't need a house on a hill
Don't need my face on a dollar bill
Just need to be clear
So that everyone can hear

Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Than my love for you
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in this world is stronger
Than my love for you

The Good Lord giveth and the Good Lord taketh away
Seems unfair, but not for me to say
Only so many dues I can pay

Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Than my love for you
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Nothing in the world is stronger
Than my love for you

Than my love for you
My love, my love for you
Than my love for you
Oh my love for you
Than my love for you
Oh my love for you
For you
