

Back In 90th

Max Barskikh (Макс Барских)

I came tonight, to have a good rest
A little tired after work
People relaxing, the crowd is jumping
I stand at the bar, and almost drunk

And suddenly something happened inside of me
I turned around and could not speak
I saw you dancing, someone from my childhood
Music starts to bring it back

I'm back in 90's, when I first saw you
You were like a queen at virgin night
I'm living the moment, when I first kissed you
We stood in the silence, I held you tight

Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...

I came tonight to have good rest
Without realizing what I found
I came to you, and looked into your eyes
And then we kissed to the music sound

I'm back in 90's, when I first saw you
You were like a queen at virgin night
I'm living the moment, when I first kissed you
We stood in the silence, I held you tight

Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...

The transience of life goes on
The transience of life goes on
The transience of life goes on
The transience of life goes on

You've taken away all my senses
Memories inside my mind
Then you're gone, no one saw you
Just disappeared in the night

I'm back in 90's, when I first saw you
You were like a queen at virgin night
I'm living the moment, when I first kissed you
We stood in the silence, I held you tight

Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go, don't wanna let ya...
