

Downtown

Max Barskih (Макс Барских)

I wanna feel you... inside of you

We place on downtown
When I will come around
And then the clock will stop
And we can hear the music sound
Then for relation, I need attention
I see your body moving in the right direction
That I'm addicted to you
Your insomnia to my
Become closer to you
I look inside your mind
And then I say that I'm yours
And you can do what you want
Cause you will be my God tonight

There's no way to
Be a lonely tonight
Just one lie, for the rest of your life
And I wonder if I lose you tonight
Will my heart feel after your lie

I feel your tension
Love is infection
Leaves our bodies, hearts, and minds in right direction
It's time to show down
You turn my head around
Without nerves take it easy
Make it slow down
That I'm addicted to you
Your insomnia to my
Become closer to you
I look inside your mind
And then I say that I'm yours
And you can do what you want
Cause you will be my God tonight

There's no way to
Be a lonely tonight
Just one lie, for the rest of your life
And I wonder if I lose you tonight
Will my heart feel after your lie

So call me tonight
Feel that I'm alive...

And I wonder if I lose you tonight
Will my heart feel after your lie
