

Invisible

Max Barskih (Макс Барских)

I irritate your nerves, you're trying to avoid me
I'm in handcuffs, you're just playing with me
You're making it fun, you catch my attention

You get used to hurt, you prefer the violence without the words
Kill me with your silence, you see my nerves, I live in tension

Maybe I'm insane, burning up your brain
But baby, I'm invisible
For you, I'm invisible
All I try to say goes another way
Baby, I'm invisible
For you I'm invisible

I was waiting for rain in the hot desert my heart was dry
And mix it with dirt, locked in walls even when I go out
I wish I were gone, I wish I'd never known you
I'm sitting alone, I'm trying to forget you
Time has stopped and I have stopped with it

Maybe I'm insane, burning up your brain
But baby, I'm invisible
For you, I'm invisible
All I try to say goes another way
Baby, I'm invisible
For you I'm invisible

Maybe I'm insane, burning up your brain
But baby, I'm invisible
For you, I'm invisible
All I try to say goes another way
Baby, I'm invisible
For you I'm invisible
