

Only One

Max Barskih (Макс Барских)

The rain fell on deserted streets
But sun was shining just for me
For me, in me

The wings of love bring me far ahead
They lift me out of the morning bed
At six, at six

And I feel secure because I know
Someone's waiting all alone
For me, for me

And I found the sense of my pointless life
Finally, I can be alive tonight
Tonight, so right

You're the only one who can turn me around
I'll never let you down, will not allow anyone
High above the ground having you in my head
Don't you know I'm your babe...

No place for sadness, stupid things
No lies, no hatred, crazy me
Because of you

I'm dancing in the streets alone
Don't care, have reason to move on
It's you, it's you

You're the only one who can turn me around
I'll never let you down, will not allow anyone
High above the ground having you in my head
Don't you know I'm your babe...

Don't ever let me go
And let me down
I've never seen before
What I've found
Give a little smile
I'll take your tears
Your sadness, and fears

Don't wanna let you go
Never bring you down
You make my world go round
And round and round
You're the best I have
And I've ever met
I've got you inside my freaking head

You're the only one who can turn me around
I'll never let you down, will not allow anyone
High above the ground having you in my head
Don't you know I'm your babe...

You're the only one who can turn me around
I'll never let you down, will not allow anyone

High above the ground having you in my head
Don't you know I'm your babe...
