What am I supposed to do
Without that love
Without that love
What am I supposed to do
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
Without that love
Without that love
What am I supposed to do
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
What am I supposed to do

What am I supposed to do
On this sleepless night
My heart is empty
I try changing positions but

What am I supposed to do
My bed is thorny
Waves crashing in my head
I'm just sighing

I close my eyes
But I still run into you
I can't throw away
My back-to-back, poor memories
All my, all my, all my fault
I keep asking, why?

What am I supposed to do
Without that love

Day by day, this heart sickness grows deeper
This fear in my heart has settled
Without that love
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
Each day is hard to endure
Too tired to hope for tomorrow
When will things be ok?

What am I supposed to do
How far have I come?
On this endless path?
Honestly, I am afraid

I tell myself that the past regrets
That drenched my eyes
Will scatter far away
So I try to forget about it but
All my, all my, all my fault
Once again, why

What am I supposed to do
Without that love
This fear in my heart has settled
Without that love
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
What am I supposed to do

This thick loneliness
That I've gotten used to
I thought I'd be comfortable with it
But I'm such a fool
Stay with me
Because the moments without you
That cruel time
You know it's killing me

What am I supposed to do
Without that love
Day by day, this heart sickness grows deeper
This fear in my heart has settled
Without that love
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
Without that love
Without that love
What am I supposed to do
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
Without that love
Without that love
What am I supposed to do
Without that love

What am I supposed to do
What am I supposed to do
