My baby my fever
(My fever my fever my fever)

Even when darkness falls asleep
An endless thirst comes to me
The heat that is filled in this room
Destroys me so that I can't endure it

Oh! keep work keep work

Wait a minute just for a while
I need some time to catch my breath
Being more than I can handle, you
Come whirling at me like the eye of the storm

At first it was only a light attraction
Not crossing any lines manner like a border line
A picture looking so ordinary
A day of a turn around one day what a day

The moment you hold your breath my senses open
I will follow you only (my baby)

Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever
Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever

To be honest I can handle it
(It's like a play that I already know of yeah)
In the end I've fallen for you
(Can't go back anymore deep to deep)

Like a sophisticated sculpture
Your line is so dramatic historical
War and sometimes even destruction and peace
All those things exist upon your lips

The moment you hold your breath, an eternal term
I'll let myself go with your rhythm (my baby)

Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever
Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever

To be honest I can handle it
(It's like a play that I already know of yeah)
In the end I've fallen for you
(Can't go back anymore deep to deep)

Spread your arms and welcome the rising wind
The dawn air swirling between the strands of your hair
Ascending to the sky with a secrets two of us shared
Like that deep resonance we keep together always oh!

Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever
(My fever my fever yeah)
Oh! keep work keep work
Keep work without fever
(Please keep on baby)

To be honest I can handle it
