

Howlin'

Max Frost

I woke up in the woods again
I dragged myself back over into town
I'm running out of common sense
Because you're all, you're all I think about

I see the sun go down
I'm thinking ah here we go again
I see the sun go down
There's nothing I can do to pretend

'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?
Yeah it feels like you're surrounded
Look at my eyes, tell me all about it
You've been so far away
So far away, so far from me
'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?

I'm killing just to pay the rent
I hid my fangs but now they're coming out
By day I'm tryna get some rest
I know the moon is coming back around

I see the sun go down
I'm thinking ah here we go again
I see the sun go down
There's nothing I can do to pretend

'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?
Yeah it feels like you're surrounded
Look at my eyes, tell me all about it
You've been so far away
So far away, so far from me
'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?

'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?
Yeah it feels like you're surrounded
Look at my eyes, tell me all about it
You've been so far away
So far away, so far from me
'Cause when the midnight is drowning
In the moonlight, can you hear me howling?
