

Nervous

Max & Harvey

You make every step
You take look like ballet
Makeups got nothing on your flawless face
You think that by now that you can walk through the room
Without me losing every ounce of my cool (to you)

Baby all of my friends ask lastly
Why I've been acting crazy it crazy

I'm over thinking every move
Laughing looking at my shoes
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect
Wearing out every excuse
Just to spend some time with you
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect

Ohhhh ohhhh ohhhh I'm never getting used to your perfect

Its been six months three days
And nothing has changed every second feels like
The first time you saying my name
You don't know what you doing girl it aren't fair
Laughing in slow motion and
Now I'm a fool caught up in a stare

I'm over thinking every move
Laughing looking at my shoes
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect
Wearing out every excuse
Just to spend some time with you
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect

Ohhhh ohhhh ohhhh I'm never getting used to your perfect

I try my best to hide it deny it disguise it
But the truth is that I

I'm over thinking every move
Laughing looking at my shoes
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect

I'm over thinking every move
Laughing looking at my shoes
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect
Wearing out every excuse
Just to spend some time with you
Still getting used to nervous
Cause I'm never getting used to you're perfect

Ohhhh ohhhh ohhhh
