

One More Day In Love

Max & Harvey

Saw you sitting there very first day of school
Wanted to impress you so I tried acting cool
Then I made myself look like a fool
Doesn't matter cos I'm in love with you

Whoa
With you
Whoa
You whoa
With you
Whoa

Look through my mind can you see us both dancing in the rain
Nobody stopping us from looking insane
Crying cos we're laughing as the neighbours complain
Making memories that no-one can ever change
Sharing ice-cream at just gone 1am
Laughing in my arms 'till you know you feel the same
One more day in love
One more day in love
More day in love

Saw you sitting there, there was one thing I knew
Tried to say something, didn't know what to do
Then you went and left me feeling blue
Doesn't matter 'cos I'm in love with you

Whoa
With you
Whoa
You whoa
With you
Whoa

Look through my mind can you see us both dancing in the rain
Nobody stopping us from looking insane
Crying cos we're laughing as the neighbours complain
Making memories that no-one can ever change
Sharing ice-cream at just gone 1am
Laughing in my arms 'till you know you feel the same
One more day in love
One more day in love
More day in love

One more day in love
Yeah you know the feel the same
When we're dancing in the rain
Yeah you know you feel the same
When we're both looking insane
Yeah you know the feel the same
When we're dancing in the rain
Yeah you know you feel the same

Look through my mind can you see us both dancing in the rain
Nobody stopping us from looking insane
Crying cos we're laughing as the neighbours complain
Making memories that no-one can ever change

Sharing ice-cream at just gone 1am
Laughing in my arms 'till you know you feel the same
One more day in love

Look through my mind can you see us both dancing in the rain
Nobody stopping us from looking insane
Crying cos we're laughing as the neighbours complain
Making memories that no-one can ever change
Sharing ice-cream at just gone 1am
Laughing in my arms 'till you know you feel the same
One more day in love
One more day in love
One more day in love
