

Love Me Back

Max McNown

Slowing down the time
In a dandelion breeze
I blew a wish into the wind, and you laughed at me

I gave you a smile
And you said, "What does that mean?"
Said, "I ain't ever been the kind to find a four-leaf"

Fell a little too hard, just a little too fast
Put my soul in your hands like a penny on the track
I've given you my heart, and all the love I have
And I'm just lucky that you love me back
Yeah, I'm just lucky that you love me back

You don't realize
The hand that you hold
Put goodbye on the table, and you know that I'd fold

So baby, let it ride
But don't let it all end
'Cause I'm always gonna be all yours, all in

Fell a little too hard, just a little too fast
Put my soul in your hands like a penny on the track
I've given you my heart, and all the love I have
And I'm just lucky that you love me back
Yeah, I'm just lucky that you love me back

Ooh, oh-oh-oh
Oh, oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh

Fell a little too hard, just a little too fast
Put my soul in your hands like a penny on the track
I've given you my heart, and all the love I have
And I'm just lucky that you love me back
Yeah, I'm just lucky that you love me back
