Blueberry Eyes

Hmm Oh, oh woah-o Yeah that's better Let's do it, well

Damn, you look so good Laying there wearing nothing but my t-shirt Your body's a neighborhood Wanna drive my lips all around it

'Cause I'm holding my breath Wondering when you're gonna wake up in my arms Head on my chest My heart's beating I can't wait to

Kiss you each morning With strawberry skies 'Cause I get so lost in Your blueberry eyes I'm running through my dreams To see you in the light 'Cause I get so lost in Your blueberry eyes
