

Echolalia, can you tell me something new
Something you haven't heard before
Well, she's been going on for days, years
It's the same old fear a thousand times
Echolalia, I've become quite bored
My intention is lost on you
Well, she's been singing for days, years
A million ???? for the broken

Everything's been said before
Everything's been said before
Everything's been said before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)
Before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)

Echolalia, are you ???? for something new
But how could you understand
He'll just mimic us for days, years
The same old game goes back and forth
Echolalia, maybe we feel safe with you
We need something from ?????
She will ???? through our days, years
Putting meaning in the meaningless

Everything's been said before
Everything's been said before
Everything's been said before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)
Before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)
Before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)
Before
(An echo, you echo, we echo)
Before
(An echo, we echo)
