

No One's Child

Maximilian Hecker

Don't be shy 'cause it's alright
I belong where no one else can grow my heart into my sorrow
I belong in you
But you are no one's child

I'm alright with you, my love
Where the sun will grow into my arms
And I will go into my sunrise
And you are no one's child

I believe to be free
I will go my way
Sunshine flows
And winter grows

You, my love, will find your way
I believe in no one else, knowing I'll be somewhere else
You and I
Cause you are no one's child

Summer grows to my arms
I believe in you
Sunshine flows
Moonlight grows
