My life is floating anyway
My dreams are flowing anyway
And all the things I have said
And all fears inside my head

My girl, don't leave, I have got the sun in me.
My girl, don't leave, I have got the sun in me.

And you will love me anyway
And you will leave me anyway
Those cut down pieces on my way
Those darkness glides down into grey

My girl, don't leave. I have got the sun in me.
My girl, don't leave. I have got the sun in me.

My life is ending anyway
Now that I am dreaming of the days
When I felt you being sad
You cannot leave my dirty head

My girl, don't leave, I have got the sun in me.
My girl, don't leave, I have got the sun in me.
I have got the sun in me.
I have got the sun in me.
