

Cracks

Maximillian

Highway lights hurt my eyes
I am getting closer
Driving home, what went on?
I am getting sober
I've been drinking just a little too much
Head is heavy with a lot of regrets now
And my room's not really dark

'Cause there are cracks in the ceiling
Firework is lit 'cause there are cracks in the ceiling
Painted walls they never stay the same
Morning's new just like that video game you play
'Cause there are cracks in the ceiling
Cracks in the ceiling
Painted walls they never stay the same
Morning's new just like that video game you play
Paint the face and pop some pills, then off to work

Like desperate lies
Just to hide that it isn't perfect
Playing strong, but what is wrong?
Mirror show some respect
What about if it isn't gonna fit?
Everybody they are trying to be flawless
And my room's not really dark

'Cause there are cracks in the ceiling
Cracks in the ceiling
Painted walls they never stay the same
Morning's new just like that video game you play

Oh, when I'm lost
You are gonna be around the corner when I'm lost
And if I mess up, you're stronger, I know
I stay right here, tell you all my secrets
I'll tell you all my secrets
And pretend like there are

Cracks in the ceiling, cracks in the ceiling (Ayy)
Painted walls they never stay the same
Morning's new just like that video game you play
Paint the face and pop some pills, then off to work

Mmh-mmh, mmh-mmh
