

Four Walls

Maximillian

Yes, mom, I sleep at night
You don't have to worry 'bout that
You don't have to worry 'bout that
I know I'm out of sight
But know that I'm doing alright
Know that I'm doing just fine

[?] too many times that you're forgetting
You don't have to call me twice to pick up a second fight
But yes, I get it, you fear I'll be unsteady
But I told you a million times

Inside of these four walls, I know I'm good
And I don't really need nobody
I don't ever feel alone
Inside of these four walls, I know I'm good
And I can cope with these changes
You just gotta let me go

(Ooh, ooh)
I'm good, I'm good
(Ooh, ooh)
I'm good, I'm good

I know I'm not a saint
Every single ghost in my head
You don't need to know about them
Something should stay unsaid
It doesn't mean that I'm doing bad
You just gotta understand

[?] too many times that you're forgetting
You don't need to call me twice to pick up a second fight
And yes, I get it, you fear I'll be unsteady
But I said it a million times

Inside of these four walls, I know I'm good
And I don't really need nobody
I don't ever feel alone
Inside of these four walls, I know I'm good
And I can cope with these changes
You just gotta let me go

(Ooh, ooh)
I'm good, I'm good
(Ooh, ooh)
I'm good, I'm good
I'm good, I'm good (Na-na-na)
I'm good, I'm good
