

Funny How

Maximillian

Funny how it always ends
You spend a month locked up so your heart might mend
Wishing time could heal your wounds
Playing games alone that was meant for two

And I have been feeling crazy for days
I need to know
If I can trust the things you say
And you're changing who you are

So what do you mean when you say that you love me?
How many days does forever take?
Funny how love's taking it toll
Funny how I always end up alone
What do you mean when you say that you love me?

Funny how it always goes
Say you see me but your eyes are closed
