

We're going higher than I've ever been before
It's true desire, it won't be long before you go
We're going higher than I've ever been before
It's true desire, all these things you want to know

I'll stay up until you're gone
Even though I'm not that strong
I've been waiting for so long
Lost my sense for right and wrong
And now I know it's true
I can only get high on you

We're going higher
What if we fall? What if we fail?
'Cause we both know we're growing tired
When I breathe in, will you exhale?
Just know that

I'll stay up until you're gone
Even though I'm not that strong
I've been waiting for so long (I've been waiting for so long)
Lost my sense for right and wrong
And now I know it's true
I can only get high on you

I might be strong, but I'm not that tough
Just a fool who's stuck in love
Don't be mean 'cause I've had enough
Walking on my own in the city
I might be strong, but I'm not that tough
Just a fool who's stuck in love
Don't be mean 'cause I've had enough
Walking on my own, looking up
I might be strong, but I'm not that tough
Just a fool who's stuck in love
Don't be mean 'cause I've had enough
Walking on my own in the city
I might be strong, but I'm not that tough
Just a fool who's stuck in love
Don't be mean 'cause I've had enough
Walking on and I know

I'll stay up until you're gone (I'll stay up until you're gone)
Even though I'm not that strong (even though I'm not that strong)
Yeah, I've been waiting for so long (I've been waiting for so long)
Lost my sense for right and wrong
And now I know it's true
I can only get high on you

I see you weeping tears
But you know I'll stay right here
And now I know it's true
I can only get high on you
