

Still Alive

Maximillian

You said time was supposed to heal
Promised me that I'd be better if you disappeared
Time's running out, I get I now, my dear
You didn't have the time, so you left me here

I guess that you are a liar
'Cause you told me I'd survive, yeah
It's like everything reminds me of you
So let me ask you this

If you ever find peace, would you leave
Just the way you did with me?
Are you still making wounds, giving scars?
Still living off the hopeless, living off the broken hearts?
Living off the broken hearts

Already gone by the time you said goodbye
Unsteady love make it hard to find the line
I should have known, felt all the cold, my dear
'Cause as soon as you left, time simply disappeared

So I guess that you are a liar
'Cause you told me I would survive, yeah
It's like everything reminds me of you
So let me ask you this

If you ever find peace, would you leave
Just the way you did with me?
Are you still making wounds, giving scars?
Still living off the hopeless, living off the broken hearts?
Living off the broken hearts
Leaving all these open scars
Oh, living with the broken hearts
If you ever find peace, would you leave
Just the way you did with me?
Are you still making wounds, giving scars?
Still living off the hopeless, living off the broken hearts?
Living off the broken hearts
Leaving all these open scars
Living with a frozen heart
Oh, living off the broken hearts
