

What Equals Love?

Maxïmo Park

And the lie was not enough
Tell the truth and you're not tough
Time just stopped and I must wait
Enter into the debate
And the lie was not enough
Tell the truth and you're not tough

Is it just the scene you've been stealing?
Or is it the heart that needs healing?

What equals love?
'Cause I forgot the equation
Well I don't know, but I think it's trust
Plus, don't forget the devotion

I would call you to account
For the duties that you flout
Lock up the glass house every day
Hope the problem goes away
And the lie was not enough
Tell the truth and you're not tough

Is it just the scene you've been stealing?
Or is it your heart that needs healing?

What equals love?
'Cause I forgot the equation
Well I don't know, but I think it's trust
Plus, don't forget the devotion

What equals love?
'Cause I forgot the equation
Well I don't know, but I think it's trust
And don't forget the devotion

I really wanna work it out, work it out
I really wanna work it out, work it out

(I really wanna work it out)
What equals love?
('Cause it feels like we're falling apart)
'Cause I forgot the equation
(I really wanna work it out)
Well I don't know, but I think it's trust
(Feels like we're falling apart)
And don't forget the devotion
(I really wanna work it out)
What equals love?
('Cause it feels like we're falling apart)
'Cause I forgot the equation
(I really wanna work it out)
Well I don't know, but I think it's trust
(Feels like we're falling apart)
I feel like I'm falling
