Kick the aisle and hit the low, I know I still make last call
Holdin' on, pray the pros out-weigh the cons
Pray my bro don't play the con
It ain't all that it seems, hard as it seems

Back and forth like a game of pong
Seeing back-stabbing like it's Game of Thrones
But I'm back snappin' with my latest poems

They gotta acknowledge the greatest goin'
They clock from a distance, they watch my condition
They copy but thinkin' I stay informed

I'm a popular nigga, but stay informed
Ran up a tab in a hundred cities
But it's really this merc got me feelin' foreign
What you tryin' do? Basi
