Heart Of Stone

Tell me why oh why Do you always try to believe I can't stand the pain I need to break out and be free

Tell me honestly Why don't you just leave me alone After all this time I know now, your heart's of stone

Can't you understand all is said and done It's all over now, our love is gone I can't stand the pain, no more love to gain Everything I gave, it was all in vain

I can't help myself I'm going to lose my mind Now I'm on my own Cause I know your heart's of stone
