

Break My Heart Again

Maya Delilah

You're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again
I don't ever want this to end
So come and break my heart again
There's no point in letting go
I won't pretend 'cause we don't know
But you're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again

Hmm

I shut you away
I gave myself more space
Then tone myself the way you weren't meant to be
Even when there was blame
I will never say your name
Through a fine light
Fine line between love, hate and pain

'Cause you're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again
And I don't ever want this to end
Come and break my heart again
There's no point in letting go
I won't pretend 'cause we don't know
But you're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again

They say it will get better
But I never ask when
'Cause you broke my heart in two
But I kept both pieces of you

You're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again
I don't ever want this to end
So come and break my heart again
There's no point in letting go
I won't pretend 'cause we don't know
You're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again

You're the only one I'll ever let
Break my heart again
