

Need A Word With Cupid

Maya Delilah

Last Tuesday morning, I just realized you're shit
Thank God I was one of those things that you quit
These rose-colored lenses, they finally lost their tint (Mm-mm)
Last Tuesday morning, I realized I'm the shit

I can't believe all the things that you made me do
Like laying out the rules that I can't be seen with you
Should've listened to all of my friends
Been the one to call it the end
I guess the love made me stupid
I need to have a word with Cupid

Oh, I'm gonna go say goodbye
Not another day that you'll make me cry
I've got the ace up my sleeve
Said I'm gonna go and love me
Oh, I'm gonna go forget you
Leave all the things that you put me through
I've got the ace up my sleeve
Said I'm gonna go and love me

Oh, I'm gonna go (Oh, I'm gonna go)
Yeah, I'm gonna go and love me
Oh, I'm gonna go (Oh, I'm gonna go)
Yeah, I'm gonna go and love me

Last Tuesday morning, I just realized you're shit (You're shit)
Called all my friends to let them say, "I knew it" (I fucking knew it)
Danced to my favorite songs you said you hated
Last Tuesday morning, I realized I'm the shit

I can't believe all the things that I saw in you
I was blind to the fact that you had me fooled
And I hope one day that you'll regret that you went and left
I guess the love made me stupid
I need to have a word with Cupid

Oh, I'm gonna go say goodbye
Not another day that you'll make me cry
I've got the ace up my sleeve
Said I'm gonna go and love me
Oh, I'm gonna go forget you
Leave all the things that you put me through
I've got the ace up my sleeve
Said I'm gonna go and love me

Oh, I'm gonna go (Oh, I'm gonna go)
Yeah, I'm gonna go and love me
Oh, I'm gonna go (Oh, I'm gonna go)
Yeah, I'm gonna go and love me
