

Silver Lining

Maya Delilah

I know this is jumping the gun
I get a little candid when I've had too much
It's not like this with anyone
I swear there's something wrong with me

It's just always on my mind
How I get too excited when
Something feels so right

The room is spinning
My sober mind is
Not convincing me
Otherwise
Sometimes falling feels like dying
But I'm obsessed with
Your silver lining

Stop, ask me whatever you want
Don't wanna put words in your mouth
If there was a moment it's now
I'm here, but I'm not
And I know that this is a lot
But I'm obsessed with your silver lining

I feel like you're reading my mind
And I'm not even thinking loud, you got me now
I swear I must be colour blind
I keep swerving off the road and missing all the signs

It's just always on my mind
How I get too excited when
Something feels so right

The room is spinning
My sober mind is
Not convincing me
Otherwise
Sometimes falling feels like dying
But I'm obsessed with
Your silver lining

Stop, ask me whatever you want
Don't wanna put words in your mouth
If there was a moment it's now
I'm here, but I'm not
And I know that this is a lot
But I'm obsessed with your silver...

Oh my God, I guess my judgement is clouded now...

The room is spinning
My sober mind is
Not convincing me
Otherwise
Sometimes falling feels like dying
But I'm obsessed with
Your silver lining

Stop, ask me whatever you want
Don't wanna put words in your mouth
If there was a moment it's now
I'm here, but I'm not
And I know that this is a lot
But I'm obsessed with your silver lining
