There are places you can go when you're in the afterglow
And the lights hang above and below you
There are people you can find in that secret peace of mind
When you fear that no one knows you

The Earth's still spinnin', I promise nothing's wrong
You like it when we're dizzy, you can see what's really goin' on

There are cities you'll survive if you hang your head and hide
From the map that swears it'll guide you
You were feelin' really weak, had your harvest in your cheeks
On your knees for me to hide you

The Earth's still spinnin', I promise nothing's wrong
You like it when we're dizzy, you can see what's really goin' on

Really goin' on
Really goin' on

You were on the attack, but you had to take it back
'Cause you know there's nothing they owe you
The sun is risin' soon, but you're howlin' at the moon
'Cause you've heard it's got a lot to show you

The Earth's still spinnin', I promise nothing's wrong
You like it when we're dizzy, you can see what's really goin' on

Really goin' on
Really goin' on
On

There are prayers you can share
It's your fault, it's not fair
And in the end, no one can really make you
If you're bleedin' from a bite
Or basking, burning in the light
You see, really anything can break you

Well, the Earth's still spinnin', I promise nothing's wrong
You like it when we're dizzy, you can see what's really goin' on

Really goin' on
Really goin' on

One, two
