

Acting Grown

iMayday!

I don't wanna be the one to grow up
I'm a big kid acting tough
Gimme a cold brew and some blunts
Gimme a fast car while I'm young
I need a weekend everyday
I need a popcorn matinee
I need a spa day by the bay
Now Tax man say I gotta pay
Keep it together whenever if ever my family enters the room
I'm light as a feather but tethered all the endeavors I had to pursue Gimme me some shoes I squeeze in While I'm leaving on the road
And I ain't even wanna see when
The receipt hits on my phone

We're just acting grown
We're just acting
We're just acting grown
Just acting
Just acting grown
We're just acting grown
We're just acting
We're just acting grown
Just acting
Just acting grown

Oh it's big bad bold Benjamin
Look at him my friends
He a gentleman with a hankering
For a sip of gin and some kindling
Light your fire hun I'm a wild one
With a mortgage and a couple hired guns
But I'm down to kick it and acquire some Super fire frying my iron lungs
Oh look at him growing tall
But he ain't following the protocol
He been slow to fall into quota aww
We been dosing him in coats of propofol
But I won't sleep living childlike
I'm a grown man with a wild life
I'm forever young up in the heart cuz It's like

We're just acting grown
We're just acting
We're just acting grown
Just acting
Just acting grown
We're just acting grown
We're just acting
Just acting
Just acting grown...

(Just acting grown)
