

Ain't For Them

iMayday!

They been telling me that I been aging
Every time I say the world is changing
They keep listening to all the same shit
Really there ain't much that they can say when
This ain't for them
This ain't for them
This ain't for them no
This ain't for them
This ain't for them
Uh this is for them ones
This ain't for them
One's that's been here from the jump
This ain't for them
Ones that show me love
This ain't for them
This is for my ones
This ain't for them
Really there ain't much that they can say when
This ain't for them

Breaking off the chain gang freedoms what I'm penning for
Never wrote with lame brain that is not a metaphor
We been on the same plane way above the second floor
Everybody trying to take a peace and so I kept it war
They did it for Benjamins
I did it for Benjamin
All these years resembling
Consistency they never win
Consistently they tell a friend
That mayday's on that next again
They miss me with that we should be like everyone but then again

This is for all my antennas inside the signal range
Writing with capital letters whenever it's my name
It's for my desperate measures and players in the game
Fighting with something inside 'em killin em everyday
This for my ones bending time and makin some time and space
And for ones that recline and light up anotha Jay
It's for my ones that tuning out every thing that they say
And for the ones holding me down I say

This ain't for them
This ain't for them
This ain't for them no
This ain't for them
This ain't for them
Uh this is for them ones
This ain't for them
One's that's been here from the jump
This ain't for them
Ones that show me love
This ain't for them
This is for my ones
This ain't for them
Really there ain't much that they can say when
This ain't for them

Keep away terefah'ed y'all don't want this beef filet
I am G-O-D and you receive me like it's Easter Day
No need for debate I am a great that's why I need parade
They walk on the street and they get treated like a meter maid
Count 'em by the thousands ever since I was just fetal age
Other rappers got you feeling you things that anesthesia may
Sorry for the brief delay we had to let this beast awake
We're back again for keepers sake
They're insecure like Issa Rae

You ain't on the list
You ain't part of this
You are a counterfeit
You ain't one of us
This is for them ones
Going on them runs
Hiding from the sun
After night is done

Just to feed they sons
I been on a suicidal mission
Ever since I admitted that I'm a musician
This for my spirits living or in prisoned
Together we gone do it to the end cuz

This ain't for them
This ain't for them
This ain't for them no
This ain't for them
This ain't for them
Uh this is for them ones
This ain't for them
One's that's been here from the jump
This ain't for them
Ones that show me love
This ain't for them
This is for my ones
This ain't for them
Really there ain't much that they can say when
This ain't for them
