

From Here

iMayday!

Do you love me?
Oh, I don't know
You're the only girl I've dated in two months
You do love me, don't you?
I have to think about it
How can I tell if I'm really...
How can you tell if you're really in love?
I don't know
Do we go?
Do we go from here? (I love you)
(Why?), do we go?
Do we go from here?
Do we go?
Do we go from here?
Do we go?
Do we go from here?
Do we go?
Do we go from here?
Do we go?

We been up, we been down, we been turnt, we been loud
But where to go now?
Yeah, we been stuck, we been proud, we been burnt, we been crowned
So tell me where to go now
Every time I get a taste I just want another taste
Got me wonderin' where it's gonna go now
I just can't get away from the pain of your trace
I don't know where to go now

Where?
Where? Where?
Where? (Do we go from here?)
Where? Where? (Do we go?)
Do we go?...
