

Lando's Jam

¡Mayday!

Lando's jam

(Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey)

Head in the clouds but I'm making my way back down

Looking for high ground now I'm making my way back down (b-b-b-back down)

(Hey)

Call it a numbers game, but who's the croupier?

Writing for reasons that I'm still to understand one day

Use me throw me away, leave but ask me to stay

I'm so confused I guess I'm used to it in some sick way

Sitting dreaming of pace, feigning for aeroplanes

Mean while my momma waits for flowers on her bir-birthday

And that's of course to date, I can't forget the source today

Been flying in these clouds so long, you'd think I had a bright red c-ape

To the winners go the spoils

Money go make money till have-nots'll have no morals

Some speak of things like souls

I watch the cherry burn until that cherry is no more

Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, watch out cause I think that they smell blood

Turn it up in the dead of the night when I nose dive back home for fun

With a light and a match and a secret stash, I won't be here for long
It was fun while it lasted, got to get back to the sun

(Hey, alright, yeah, alright)

Head in the clouds but I'm making my way back down (back down)

Looking for high ground now I'm making my way back down (back down)

(Yeah, it's a long way down)

Fly in a madman that's running round the world getting plenty of bad fans

Keep my head above the water

Swimming in that land

Just sing in the TASCAM

So much I know they even wanna gimme a catscan

I wouldn't wanna dream this life away

But I'm feeling like my head is in a vice today

And the price you pay is a life to stay

Under licensed lay but is it priced to play

See I don't think so but they kill it when you think slow

One last chance it's a gimmick when the inks low

One last dance I'mma kill it with the link flow

Kinko copy with the pink bow think no

Just another one of these old schemes so

Break bread with us over dream soaked meat loaf

I been wanna run it for a hunnid but I'm stubborn and I love it but I cannot break it up enough to stop!
