Let You Tell It

¡Mayday!

Go ahead, say whatever you want
Go ahead and calculate all the raw data you brought Write up an email with the details on lock
Give me a run down when I come down the block
Got a lot of time caught up try'na tell 'em my side
Only to find out I was working off some lies
We 'bout to find out if you really bout it this time
I'ma just lie down, let you really speak your mind
'Cause I, 'cause I finally notice (word?)
It's all locked inside (all locked inside)
'Cause I know you know it (I know you know it!)
It's all what you find (it's all what you find)
Does that sound so foolish? (sound so foolish?)
To think you're latin? (c'mon)
So no use in tryin' to, hold onto my mind

I'll let you tell it
You say what you want, I'll let you tell it
Just gon' let you talk, I'll let you tell it
Say just what you want, I'll let you tell it
I'll let you tell it
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)

I've been on your mind, every cross that I'm—
Pull up I often wind up in the way
It was an awesome vibe, truly I lost the time
Truth has been hard to find when it's today
Running your mouth so wide that we get lost in lies
You might've crossed the line, carried away
Not try'na floss but I'm never in shock, I ride
All of my stops are now kept it at bay
Shit you got tales taller than Paul, I've been tired of all y'all
Trash talking mirage, but I'm letting the car stall
Now I'm going deaf to the general public
Y'all talking to walls 'cause I'm hearing like none of it
So run 'til the meter, I'm seeing Mrs. Benita
Fabricating iMAYDAY! so I can't even believe ya
Glad I made it, say it and I be sure to relieve ya
I'm happy to appease ya, love

I'll let you tell it
You say what you want, I'll let you tell it
Just gon' let you talk, I'll let you tell it
Say just what you want, I'll let you tell it
I'll let you tell it
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
Oohh, I'll let you tell it (What you say don't matter much)
