

Nothin

¡Mayday!

Life is like the weather
Everything will change
Nothing lasts forever
Nothing stays the same

Nothins really real
Nothins what it appears
Nothins what I feel
While I'm wiping the tear
Nothin is something here
In the space where the gravity is gone
Where the weight is not so strong
Fall
Still it all amounts to nothing
Nothin in your ear
Nothin I can do to not disappear
Nothin is something here
So I repeat and dissect the prior years
Smoking weed and drinking beers
Getting numb, let it breath

Rhyme-wise I drew the figure eight
There's nothin I regret
Nothin I won't make straight
She told me save those tapes
Cause my life is logged in them
Hidden within the words
Buried inside the rhythm
I said sure
Not knowing that's the last we'd speak
She fought it hard
But eventually just chose to sleep
Back to nothin
Though somehow, something lingers behind
Imprint in my mind, broken bloodline
Time
And I can still see her there
Cooking in the kitchen
Feeding us with all her pampering
Now there's nothin there
It vanished into air
So I said goodbye
Let her go; let her die
Mother please don't cry

Life is like the weather
Everything will change
Nothing lasts forever

Life is like the weather

Mayday, save me
Love you, pay me

New shit, for you
By you, may we
Sun is, BernBiz
Moon is, Plexo
SOS bro
Get free, let's go
