

Toss Up

iMayday!

Either getting with a busy man
Or you babysit a broke one
I don't wanna live the way I used to
She lookin sexy with her messy hair
Plus she always tryna roll sum
I don't got the time to lie and confuse you

And oh oh oh oh oh
I'm just a Rolling stone

All her friends bad
She the one that's talked up
I could let her go
Or she could have me locked up
That's a toss up
That's a toss up
I could never be locked down
We could talk but
Lemme stop ya
We could see how things play out
That's a toss up
That's a toss up
Cause I'm only here for now

I'm just hoping that you understand
Cause if you don't we got a problem
Just the way I am if you okay you cool then I'm cool too
If you want we could hit Japan
Or Sip tequila out in cabo
Put you on the gram
And shop where we choose to

And oh oh oh
I'm Just a Rolling stone
So I gotta say

It's all up in the air
Out if my hands tonight
Lady Lux driving the ship its a roll of the dice
Don't know where this ends
Only when it feels right
You always Makin a entrance
I'm ignoring advice
And you been driving the light
Ask about me rather lively
I'm a whole nother vibe
If you catch me It's unlikely
I'm Rolling with the tide
And gone before you uninvite me
And I'm seeing it's time to make my way out rather likely

Have to rightly
I move fast and travel kinda hyphe
I been out on the move so I ain't tryna choose a wife
I been truthful
But you can just never hear just what it might
So I'm hit the door and put pedals to floor politely

Zooming down the highway doin 99
Business is the key so I'm happily minding mine
At times I been inclined to put you back on my mind
Cause no matter I go I seem to find...

All her friends bad
She the one that's talked up
I could let her go
Or she could have me locked up
That's a toss up
That's a toss up
I could never be locked down
We could talk but
Lemme stop ya
We could see how things play out
That's a toss up
That's a toss up
Cause I'm only here for now
Cause I'm only here for now
Cause I'm only here for now
