

Won't Wait

iMayday!

(Yeah, check it, one time, yeah)
I've been rockin' the boat
We've both jocked the approach
I won't bother with quotes
Or patronize you at all
I'm tired of jokes and clichés and the hopes
To gettin' back to your home and stayin' up till it's dawn
I promise I won't, hit you up when I'm gone
Unless you want me to flex
Then I'm there in a sec
But baby don't get me wrong
I ain't here for that long
I'm out rockin' these sets
You won't know 'till I'm gone!
You got me out here feelin' naked
Overexposed over petty complications
And I ain't spittin' no games over relations
I'm just runnin' all my options before I run out of patience!
Girlfriend sayin' it's bait
Mama sayin' baby go on and give it away
Ignorin' all the warnings and takin' a leap of faith
Got a feeling that today's the day

And I just won't wait
If we don't make a move right now
We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make this thing here count
We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make a move right now
We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make this thing here count
We might as well put it away, put it away
And I just won't wait

For the night's light's, light
To fade away now things are seemin' quite that, bright
And it might not, right?
But we may never know it if the dice don't, strike
You calmly calling me for the chance of just callin' me
The function is bodily but I feel it in artery
It's dually been noted that we produc'in' a harmony
But lack of distribution is the feeling that's harmin' me!
I'mma rag tag hitter, slash the go-getter
My stash is so glimmer, your fashion, more glitter!
Shinin' like diamonds that I've been dyin' of minin'
The fact you play with my vibin' is really so undermining
But it's cool
It's just a game you play by the rules
But I'd break every last one to spend a summer with you
I'm ignorin' all the warnings and taking a leap of faith
I got a feeling that today is the day

And I just won't wait
If we don't make a move right now

We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make this thing here count
We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make a move right now
We might as well put it away
And I just won't wait
If we don't make this thing here count
We might as well put it away, put it away
And I just won't wait
