

Breakfast in Bed

Mayer Hawthorne

Oh I still want you
Let's run it back
One more time

Let's order breakfast in bed
Just me and you and Mr. Sunshine
Let's order breakfast in bed
And leave the ordinary world behind

Last night was unexpected, uh
Nothing we could have predicted
Would happen for some time
You can blame it on the gin and lime
Let's run it back, rewind
Don't be in such a hurry
You don't have to worry
'Bout finding all your clothes
Uh, do not disturb is hanging from the door so

Let's order breakfast in bed
Just me and you and Mr. Sunshine
Let's order breakfast in bed
And leave the ordinary world behind

The moment that you wake up
Don't put on your make up
I want you exactly as you are
Uh, I know you've got your battles and your scars

Let's settle down, recharge

Good morning California
Let the sunshine warm ya
As it sparkles on your skin
We'll enjoy each other one mo' 'gen and then

Let's order breakfast in bed
Just me and you and Mr. Sunshine
Let's order breakfast in bed
And leave the ordinary world behind

Champagne, strawberry jam
I want you to know who I am
French toast, we'll do the most
I know it's got to end but until then

Let's order breakfast in bed
Just me and you and Mr. Sunshine
Let's order breakfast in bed
And leave the ordinary world behind

Let's order breakfast in bed
(I still want you)
Let's order breakfast in bed (let's run it back, one more time)
