

Open Your Eyes

Maylene and the Sons of Disaster

I try to reach, I try to reach but I, I don't know why
You lie to me, you lie to me
In the fear of the night

I'm not the one that you believe in,
I can never put the fear inside of the pain
I'm not the savior that you've become
I'm not the fear I'm the only one

Open your eyes, can you see
Can you see I am inside of you? (I am inside of you)
Open your eyes, can you feel
Can you feel me in your veins?
Watch me take it all away!

What's in your head, what's in your head
I don't, I don't know how
You scream at me, you scream at me
Without, making a sound

And in this moment I am guiltless
But I promise you will feel this inside of your veins

I'm not the savior that you've become
And I don't believe you're the only one

Open your eyes, can you see
Can you see I am inside of you (I am inside of you)
Open your eyes, can you feel
Can you feel me in your veins
Watch me take it all away

And you will love the way it feels, to believe in nothing
And you will tell me when you've had enough, you've had enough

Open your eyes, can you see
Can you see I am inside of you
Open your eyes, can you feel
Can you feel me in your veins
Watch me take it all away
