

Walking down the road
Your hands are holding mine
Stories that once told
Our history's divine
I'll take you as you are
You take me as I am
Love got us this far
Our love will never end

Take me, take me now
Into your arms, I promise
Everything will be alright
Take me, take me now
Into your arms

Look above the starry skies
Beneath the clouds with your brown eyes
With your brown eyes
Take the pain away while you kiss me
Oh I love you still
I love you still

We both know
That things won't be the same
For you dear I'll be patient
Forever can wait

And now it's you and me
It's us against the world
With love that's indestructible
With you I can be strong

Take me, take me now
Into your arms, I promise
Everything will be alright
Take me, take me now
Into your arms

Beneath the clouds with your brown eyes
With your brown eyes
Take the pain away while you kiss me
Oh I love you still
I love you still

(Take me now into your arms, you'll never be alone)
(Take me now into your arms, you'll never be alone)
(Take me now into your arms, you'll never be alone)
(Take me now into your arms, you'll never be alone)
