

Looking For Love

Mayonnaise

I saw you from the moon
I'm waiting for your smile
I see it in your eyes
It cuts me like a knife inside

It's your eyes from the sky cause I've been looking for one
(The one tonight)
It's your eyes from the sky cause I've been looking for one
(The one tonight)
(The one tonight)
(The one tonight)

I need you by my side
I've been lonely all my life
I'm afraid to lose my mind
Like a sky without the moonlight

It's your eyes from the sky cause I've been looking for one
(The one tonight)
It's your eyes from the sky cause I've been looking for one
(The one tonight)

I know this is crazy
I'm waiting for your sign
(I'm waiting for a sign)
Cause I am scared to lose you
Forever is not mine

It's your eyes from the sky cause I've been looking for one
(The one tonight)
